

The figure displays a 4x5 grid of 20 heatmaps, each representing the spatial distribution of a 20th-order Legendre polynomial. The heatmaps are arranged in a grid with labels #0 to #19. The color scale ranges from dark purple (low values) to bright yellow (high values). The patterns show increasing complexity and localization as the index increases.

5